北京鴨

IMPERIAL PEKING DUCK

Peking duck is a famous dish from Beijing that has been first prepared for the Emperor in the Yuan Dynasty & became one of the main dishes on Imperial Court menus in the XIII century. By the time of the Qing Dynasty in the XVIII century the popularity of Peking Duck had spread to the masses, & by the mid-XX century, Peking Duck had become a national symbol of China.

Historically, Peking Ducks are bred solely for the dish, and final result is prized for its succulent meat & thin, crisp skin and delicious aroma. Enjoy!
